FOREWORD

THE following pages contain the names of members, and the record of baptisms, marriages, and burials, found in the Church Records of the Reverend Ammi Ruhamah Robbins, first pastor of the Church of Christ in Norfolk, Connecticut, together with a few records contained in a loose section found with them.

These records were copied several years ago at the suggestion of Mr. Carl Stoeckel, with a view to publication, and have been repeatedly and carefully compared with the original.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF REV. MR. ROBBINS

The Rev. Ammi Ruhamah Robbins, son of Rev. Philemon Robbins, Pastor of the first church in Branford, was born in that town, Aug. 25th O. S. 1740. His early education was under the care of his father, till the autumn of 1756, when he was received as a member of the College at Princeton in New Jersey. In the following spring, in consequence of the death of President Burr, he removed his College relation & was admitted to the same standing in Yale College. In Sept. 1760, he was admitted to the degree of A.B: & to the degree of A.M. in Sept. 1763. He was licensed to preach the gospel in June 1761; & on the 28th of October of the same year he was ordained the Pastor of this Church. On the 13th of May 1762, he was married to Miſs Elizabeth Lebaron of Plymouth, by whom he had thirteen children. The four first died in infancy, & one Sept. 1777. The remaining eight with their mother survived him. His ministry was much bleſsed as may appear from the Record of Admiſsions to the church. He never received persons to a public profeſsion of religion, but upon a charitable evidence of personal grace. In 1804, the members of the church amounted to 237: Males 91, Females 146. In 1801, the number was about 250.— On the first sabbath of May 1813, he preached, in usual health, & administered the ordinance of the Supper. That week he was taken with a painful disease in his face, which eventually became a large painful tumour. On the Sabbath, May 23d, he went to public worship near the close of the exercise, baptized two children, & made a short addreſs & prayer in view of parting with the first Meeting House, which was taken down that week. This was the last public service he performed. His disorder continued to increase & baffled all medical aſsistance, & terminated in his death, Sabbath evening Oct. 31st 1813.— During his sickneſs he manifested great submiſsion to the divine will, & an increasing confidence in his christian hope. Towards the close of life he was carried above the fears of death, & had great joy in the prospect of immortality & the eternal presence of Christ. He died in the presence of all his family & many of his people, & had, apparently, an easy paſsage to the eternal state.— In his person, he was short, his body thick, muscular, & uncommonly active: his complexion dark, his countenance pleasant & animated, his voice clear, musical & strong. In his deportment, he was affable & obliging, poſseſsing an easy & uniform flow of animal spirits, desirous of doing good to all, especially of leading his fellow sinners to a clear view of his much-loved Saviour. "Bleſsed are the dead, who die in the Lord."

Nov. 4th 1813. Moestiſsimè scripsi. T. Robbins.
